

Much or Many?

Use the word MANY when talking about things that can be counted.
Use MUCH when talking about things that cannot be counted.

Examples:

So many pixies got loose in the classroom!

Harry has so much money in his vault at Gringotts.

Draw a line to match each word to MUCH or MANY.

spellbooks

time

homework

treasure

wands

MANY

dragons

owls

scrolls

pumpkin juice

gold

courage

broomsticks

Gryffindors

danger

cauldrons

MUCH

snow

magic

robes

potions

smoke

trouble

unicorns

mandrakes

quaffles

Much or Many?

Answer Key

many spellbooks

much homework

many wands

many owls

much pumpkin juice

much courage

many Gryffindors

many cauldrons

much magic

many potions

much trouble

many mandrakes

much time

much treasure

many dragons

many scrolls

much gold

many broomsticks

much danger

much snow

many robes

much smoke

many unicorns

many quaffles