

It is not the responsibility of knights errant to discover whether the afflicted

...are reduced to these circumstances

...for their vices or for their virtues: a knight's sole responsibility is to succor them as people in need...

Miguel de Cervantes, "Don Quixote"