

Crash Course U.S. Government - Day 31

1. What are the three things that have to happen for someone to become a Supreme Court Justice?

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

2. What are the requirements to be a Supreme Court Nominee? _____

3. What are some examples of factors that might be considered when selecting a nominee?

4. Who traditionally holds hearings to examine a Supreme Court nominee?

5. How much of the Senate has to vote for the nominee for them to be approved?

6. What are the three ways a Supreme Court Justice could leave their job before their death?

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

Answers

1. be nominated by the President of the United States, nomination must be approved by the Senate, and the President must formally appoint you to the court.
2. None, there are no formal requirements
3. Answers may include political ideology, gender, ethnicity, experience, personal loyalties, age, etc.
4. The Senate Judiciary Committee
5. A simple majority
6. resignation, retirement, or removal by impeachment