

Crash Course U.S. Government - Day 34

---

1. If congress disagrees with a Supreme Court ruling that overturns a law, how can they respond?

---

2. Describe the difference between judicial activism and judicial restraint.

---

---

---

---

3. In this context, what does originalism mean?

---

---

---

---

Answers

1. by passing a new law
2. Judicial activism is the idea that the court should create policy, much like the other two branches of government. These judges are accused of making laws from the bench. Judicial restraint holds that judges should adhere closely to previous decisions and only make incremental changes.
3. That any new laws should be considered against the Constitution as it was originally written.