

Crash Course U.S. Government - Day 45

Word Bank

deny enforce

jurisdiction

equal laws

1. Use the word bank to complete the sentence below.

No state shall make or _____ any law which shall _____ to any person within its _____ the _____ protection of the _____.

2. What was separate but equal supposed to mean? _____

3. What are protected classes? _____

4. The five steps of strict scrutiny the courts must take are:

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

4) _____

5) _____

5. What is the lowest level of court review? _____

6. What is the name for mid-level scrutiny? _____

Answers

1. enforce, deny, jurisdiction, equal, law
2. segregation was allowable as long as equal accommodation was made for people of different races
3. Minorities such as religious, national, racial, etc. that may need to be legally protected from discrimination by the majority. The courts will step in to protect groups that are unable to protect themselves.
4.
 - 1) see if a protected liberty is at stake
 - 2) check whether it is a fundamental liberty
 - 3) check whether the law places an undue burden on the person or group
 - 4) look to see whether the law furthers a compelling government interest
 - 5) see if the law takes the least restrictive action to achieve the goal
5. the 'rational basis'
6. intermediate scrutiny