

Crash Course U.S. Government - Day 10

Today you learned a little more about how Congressmen are elected. Use the video you watched to answer the questions.

1. Each congressional district elects one _____.
2. The two _____ from each state are elected by the whole state.
3. The candidate currently holding an elected office is called the _____.
4. The candidate running for an office held by someone else is called the _____.
5. What is the difference between claiming credit for something and taking a position on something?
