

Crash Course U.S. Government - Day 12

Word Bank

majority Majority Leader minority Minority Leader President pro tem
Speaker of the House Vice President

1. Use the word bank to complete the sentences below.

The House of Representatives is led by the _____.

They are elected by the party that is in the _____, or the one with more members. The party with fewer elected members is in the _____.

The Senate is led by the _____, while the _____ is just the spokesman for their party. When available, the _____ can preside over Senate sessions. When they are not available, the Senate is presided over by the _____, the most senior member of the majority party.

2. What is agenda setting power and why is it important?
