

Crash Course U.S. Government - Day 9

---

The first 10 Amendments to the Constitution were called the Bill of Rights, and were intended to protect the rights and liberties of the American people from tyrannical abuses like the ones they had suffered prior to the Revolutionary War.

Label each right preserved in the Bill of Rights with the number of the Amendment they are found in.

- ___ Right to bear arms
- ___ Right to a speedy trial
- ___ Rights not listed belong to the people
- ___ Ban on unreasonable search and seizure
- ___ Freedom of religion
- ___ Cannot be required to quarter soldiers in the home
- ___ Right to trial by jury in common law
- ___ Ban on cruel and unusual punishment
- ___ Freedom of assembly
- ___ Right to jury of your peers
- ___ Ban on government seizure of property without compensation
- ___ Rights not given to the federal government belong to the states or people
- ___ Ban on double jeopardy
- ___ Freedom of speech
- ___ Ban on self-incrimination
- ___ Right to assemble militias
- ___ Freedom of the press
- ___ Right to counsel