

Crash Course U.S. Government - Day 32

1. Define judicial review. _____

2. What are the four areas federal courts have the power to review?

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____

3. What Supreme Court decision granted the power of judicial review? _____

4. What does stare decisis mean? _____

Answers

1. the power of the judiciary to examine and invalidate actions undertaken by the executive and legislative branches of both the federal and state governments
2. congressional laws or statutes, state actions, federal bureaucratic agencies, presidential actions
3. Marbury vs. Madison
4. “let the decision stand,” courts try not to overturn previous court decisions frequently