

Crash Course U.S. Government - Day 70

1. What is the first government economic goal listed? _____

2. What are some ways that government can help create a stable market? _____

3. What is the second government economic goal listed? _____

4. What are some ways the government promotes prosperity? _____

5. What is the third government economic goal listed? _____

6. What are the two main ways that the government promotes business prosperity?

1) _____

2) _____

7. What is the fourth government economic goal listed? _____

8. What are some ways the government protects employees and consumers? _____

Answers

1. promoting stable markets
2. answers may vary: maintaining law and order, minimizing monopolies, regulating industry standards
3. promoting economic prosperity OR diversity
4. answers may vary: invest in the climate, build confidence in the economy, regulating financial markets, invest in public infrastructure, invest in research, education, and immigration; keeping inflation low
5. promoting business development
6. tariffs, subsidies
7. protect consumers and employees
8. answers may vary: pass fair labor laws, set the minimum wage, prevent dangerous workplace conditions, make sure food and medicines aren't poison, making cars safer, keeping lead out of toys,