

Crash Course U.S. Government - Day 79

1. What was the first war declared by the United States? _____

2. Name one cause of the war. _____

3. Name the Native American leader that the British may have been encouraging to fight against the Americans. _____

4. Why did the British begin doing better in the war after 1814? _____

5. The British succeeded in burning this national landmark: _____

6. Which future president rose to fame due to his success in the Battle of New Orleans?

7. Who won the War of 1812? _____

8. Name 4 consequences of the War of 1812.

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

4) _____

Answers

1. The War of 1812
2. Answers could include impressment of American sailors, the Orders in Council, fear of the British, disputes over Canada, or expansion into Native American territory
3. Tecumseh
4. Because they had finished fighting Napoleon
5. the White House
6. Andrew Jackson
7. No one/neither side
8. Answers could include that Native Americans suffered death and lost territory, prevented further American invasions by the British, it launched Andrew Jackson's career, solidified settlement east of the Mississippi, reinforced Canada's status as a separate nation, ended the Federalist party, and created the perception of US as a major player on the national stage.