

Crash Course U.S. Government - Day 81

1. Why is 1890-1920 called “the women’s era?” _____

2. The largest women’s organization in the United States at that time was called the _____

3. The National Consumer League encourage people to buy products made without these types of labor.

1) _____

2) _____

4. Why were some women in the United States able to vote before the 19th amendment was passed?

5. When was the 19th amendment ratified? _____

6. What did the 19th amendment do? _____

Answers

1. In that time women began to have greater economic and political opportunities.
2. Women's Christian Temperance Union
3.
 - 1) child labor
 - 2) sweatshop labor
4. Some states gave women the right to vote
5. 1920
6. made it illegal to stop people from voting because they were women