

Romanesque vs. Classical Architecture

Use the word bank below to compare Romanesque churches and Classical Roman temples. Fill in the Venn diagram with architectural features that are unique to each style and those they share.

Word Bank:

Rounded arches, Barrel vaults, Thick walls, Small windows, Columns, Symmetry, Use of concrete, Domes, Narrow naves, Rich interior decoration, Dark interiors, Post and lintel, Stone construction, Public gatherings, Religious worship

