

Answer Key: Romanesque vs. Classical Architecture

This answer key shows typical characteristics for Romanesque churches and Classical Roman temples. Shared features are listed in the overlapping section.

Romanesque:

Thick walls, Small windows, Dark interiors, Narrow naves, Rich interior decoration

Classical:

Use of concrete, Post and lintel, Public gatherings

Shared Features:

Columns, Stone construction, Religious worship, Domes, Rounded Arches, Barrel Vaults, Symmetry